

Become a Friend of Crarae

The Friends of Crarae is a registered charity (SC033244) made up of local, national and international individuals dedicated to the preservation and promotion of the National Trust for Scotland managed Gardens of Crarae on the banks of Loch Fyne in Argyll.

The Friends have been involved with Crarae Gardens for over 30 years, raising funds and helping out with special projects to ensure this designed landscape and Himalayan garden is preserved for the future.

In return for an annual subscription and/or supporting donations Friends gain FREE entry to the garden at any time, they receive annual newsletters and invitations to the AGM (July each year) and social events such as talks, and the “Carols at Crarae” Christmas concert.

It is also our intent to re-instate a volunteer work program to assist the NTS garden staff in maintaining this magical place. Further news of this initiative will be in our annual Newsletter (April) and on our website.

Our new website charts the gardens through the seasons and provides some history and background information on Crarae and the designed landscape. It highlights new events / projects as they unfold.
